Refund or Elimination of Charge Appeal

The student is expected to drop his/her classes within the Refund Deadline. If you do not show up or stop attending classes and fail to drop within the refund guidelines you are responsible for all your tuition and fees.

This petition is a formal request for an exception to college procedures. Extenuating circumstances are verified cases of illness, accident, or natural disaster. State the extenuating circumstances in as much detail, and as clearly as possible. Attach or email evidence to support your request. Incomplete Appeals will be denied.

Petitions with insufficient information, explanation, or documentation will be denied.

Community Education Courses (courses that start with X) are not refundable after the first day of class. A decision will be sent to you by the end of the current semester.

For more information, please check the current COS catalog and Administrative Procedures 5030, 5070, and 5071. It is the responsibility of the student to officially withdraw from class to be eligible for a refund. You are entitled to a refund if you drop a full-term course by the Add / Drop / Refund deadline and it will be processed automatically. The Add / Drop / Refund deadline is listed in the Academic Calendar or on your schedule/bill in your portal. Short-term and Fast-track courses each have their own Add/ Drop/ Refund Deadlines. Check with the professor or on your schedule/bill located in your mySiskiyous account. Documentation is the responsibility of the student.

College of the Siskiyous does not bill students by mail. When you register – all fees are charged to your student account which you can see through your mySiskiyous account.
