Students may repeat a course no more than two times in which substandard grades (less than "C", and including "FW") were earned.

A "W" grade for withdrawal is considered an "attempt", but does not apply to course repetition.

When course repetition occurs, the permanent academic record shall be annotated in such a manner that all work remains legible, insuring a true and complete academic history.

Under special circumstances, students may repeat courses in which a C or better grade was earned. The special circumstances are defined in administrative procedures.

Students may enroll in activity courses in physical education, visual arts, or performing arts. Such courses may not be repeated for more than three attempts. This limit applies even if the student receives a substandard grade or "W" on previous attempts or if a student petitions for repetition due to extenuating circumstances.
