B. Recognize peace officer’s role in relation to the protections included under federal civil rights statutes.

1. Peace officers may be sued for deprivation of a person’s right
2. Two or more persons who conspire with others to deprive rights may be imprisoned
3. Peace officers acting under color of law may be imprisoned for violating civil rights

II. LEARNING NEED

Peace officers must recognize that a consensual encounter is a face-to-face contact with a person under circumstances, which would cause a reasonable person to believe they are free to leave or otherwise not cooperate.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

A. Recognize appropriate conduct during a consensual encounter

1. Interviewing witnesses at a crime or accident
2. disseminating information
3. Conversing casually

B. Recognize conduct that may elevate a consensual encounter

1. Using emergency lights
2. Issuing orders or commands
3. Demanding or keeping identification

C. Recognize the consequences of elevating a consensual encounter

1. May violate 4th amendment protections
2. Criminally prosecuted for violation of civil rights
3. May face department discipline

III. LEARNING NEED

Peace officers must recognize that a temporary detention is an assertion of authority that is less than an arrest but more substantial than a consensual encounter.

A. Differentiate between a detention and a consensual encounter
   1. Detention must be based on reasonable suspicion of illegal activity
   2. Detention is limited in scope, intensity and duration
   3. In detention, a person is not free to leave

B. Recognize reasonable suspicion
   1. When an officer has enough facts and circumstances present to make it reasonable to believe that criminal activity is occurring and the detained person is connected to that activity
   2. Reasonable suspicion may be based on observation, training, experience
   3. Reasonable suspicion can’t be based on hunch or instinct

C. Recognize appropriate peace officer actions during a detention
   1. Questioning about identity and conduct
   2. Contacting persons to confirm identity and conduct
   3. Bringing victim to suspect for identification purposes

D. Recognize the scope and conditions for warrantless searches and seizures during a detention
   1. Cursory/frisk searches not allowed unless officer has factual basis to believe suspect is armed
   2. Cursory/frisk searches limited to outer clothing for weapons only
   3. Officers finding an object that is not a weapon must leave it alone

E. Recognize conditions where the use of force or physical restraint is appropriate during a detention
   1. If a person attempts to flee
   2. Uncooperative person may be handcuffed
   3. Uncooperative person may be placed in patrol vehicle
IV. LEARNING NEED

Peace officers must know and comply with the statutory rules of arrest in order to properly exercise their authority and responsibility, and to avoid potential liability when making arrests.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

A. Recognize when there is probable cause to arrest
   1. Direct investigation reports
   2. Circumstantial evidence
   3. Secondhand statements from reliable witnesses

B. Identify elements of a lawful arrest
   1. The arrested person must be taken into custody in a case and in the manner authorized by law
   2. An arrest may be made by the actual restraint of the person or by the person’s submission to the officer’s authority
   3. Reasonable force may be used to make an arrest, prevent escape or overcome resistance

C. Differentiate between arrest and detention
   1. Custody is the key. It implies the person making the arrest has full control
   2. Detention is assertion of authority that would cause a reasonable person to believe that they are not free to leave
   3. Detention is limited in scope, duration and intensity

D. Recognize information that must be given to an arrested person
   1. Officer must explain his intent to arrest
   2. Officer must explain the cause for the arrest
   3. Officer must explain his authority to arrest

E. Recognize elements of a warrantless arrest for a misdemeanor
   1. Misdemeanor committed in officer’s presence
   2. Misdemeanor not committed in officer’s presence but committed by a juvenile
   3. Misdemeanor was one of seven specified misdemeanors
F. Recognize elements of a warrantless arrest for a felony
   1. Committed a felony in the officer’s presence (third level of detail)
   2. Committed a felony but not in the officer’s presence
   3. Committed a felony, regardless of whether a felony was in fact committed

G. Recognize elements of a warrant arrest
   1. Arrest warrant is a written order signed by a magistrate
   2. Warrant commands a peace officer to arrest the named suspect
   3. Officer must establish probable cause through a sworn affidavit

H. Recognize the requirements for entry to make an arrest
   1. Officer’s entry is based on consent
   2. Officer’s entry is based on exigent circumstances
   3. Officer had lawfully entered the area for some other purpose

I. Recognize the authority for a private person arrest and the peace officer’s duty in response to a private person arrest
   1. Private person may arrest for any public offense committed in their presence
   2. Private person may arrest if a felony has been committed and they have probable cause to believe that the suspect committed the felony
   3. Private person must immediately take the person before a magistrate or turn the arrested person over to a peace officer

J. Recognize conditions under which the use of force or physical restraint is appropriate during an arrest
   1. To prevent escape
   2. To overcome resistance
   3. To make the arrest

K. Recognize the statutory requirements for the disposition of an arrested person
   1. Release
   2. Citation
   3. Take them before a magistrate
L. Recognize the exception to the powers to arrest
   1. For a misdemeanor violation of a protective order involving domestic violence
   2. Is pursuant to agency policy for responding to domestic violence calls

V. LEARNING NEED

When interrogating a suspect who is in custody, peace officers must follow Miranda procedures to ensure that any answers they obtain will be admissible in court.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

A. Identify the purpose of the Miranda warning
   1. Fifth Amendment – no person shall be compelled to testify against themselves
   2. Any statement made during custodial interrogation will be viewed as compelled
   3. A custodial interrogation is an inherently coercive atmosphere

B. Recognize when Miranda warnings must be given
   1. Person is in custody
   2. Person is being interrogated

C. Identify the proper administration of Miranda warnings
   1. You have a right to remain silent
   2. Anything you say may be used against you in court
   3. You have a right to have an attorney before and during any questioning
   4. If you cannot afford an attorney, one will be appointed for you free of charge, before questioning, if you wish

D. Recognize the impact of invoking
   1. Right to remain silent
   2. Right to counsel
   3. All interrogation must cease
   4. A person may invoke their right to silence or counsel only at the time or during custodial interrogation
   5. Miranda rights may not be invoked by anyone else but the suspect
E. Recognize the types of Miranda waivers
   1. Express
   2. Implied
   3. Conditional

F. Recognize the exception to the Miranda rule
   1. Public safety or emergency rescue doctrine
   2. Based on exigent circumstances
   3. Concern can be for victim, defendant, third person, public at large or officer’s safety

VI. LEARNING NEED

To develop admissible evidence while ensuring the constitutional rights of all individuals, peace officers must be aware of and correctly follow standardized practices for conducting crime scene interviews and interrogations.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

A. Differentiate between an interview and interrogation
   1. Interview is process of questioning non-suspects
   2. Interrogation is the process of questioning suspects
   3. Interrogation is likely to elicit an incriminating response

B. Differentiate between an admission and confession
   1. A confession involves acknowledging the commission of all of the elements of the crime
   2. An admission involves acknowledging certain facts that intend to incriminate the individual but fall short of a confession

1. Officers must be able to articulate how and why they have a fair probability to believe a crime has occurred or about to occur
2. Officers must be able to articulate how and why they have a fair probability to believe evidence pertaining to the crime exists
3. Officers must be able to articulate how and why they have a fair probability to believe the evidence is at the location they wish to search
II. LEARNING NEED

Although warrantless searches and seizures are presumptively illegal, when certain conditions are met, officers may lawfully search and seize evidence without a search warrant. For evidence to be admissible at trial, officers must have a clear understanding of the legal requirements for those conditions.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

A. Recognize the conditions and circumstances where warrantless searches and seizures are considered reasonable and legal

1. Plain view
2. Search incident to custodial arrest
3. Consent searches

B. Recognize the scope and necessary conditions for conducting the following types of warrantless searches:

1. Cursory/frisks
   a. Lawful detention
   b. Officer must articulate specific facts which caused him to reasonably believe the person is dangerous or carrying a weapon
   c. Search is limited to outer clothing for weapons or potential weapons only

2. Consent searches
   a. Voluntary
   b. Obtained from person with authority to give that consent
   c. Officers must honor any restrictions expressed or implied

3. Searches pursuant to exigent circumstances
   a. Imminent danger to a person’s life or safety
   b. Serious damage to property
   c. Evidence is about to be destroyed or moved

4. Searches incident to arrest
   a. A full search of the arrestee’s person
   b. Containers on the arrestee’s person
c. The nearby physical area that is under the immediate control of the arrestee

5. Probation/parole searches
   a. Both searches allow warrantless, suspicionless searches
   b. Searches may include their person, residence, any property under their control
   c. Officers should confirm search conditions prior to searching as search conditions may vary

III. LEARNING NEED

The Fourth Amendment’s protection against unreasonable searches and seizures extends to a person’s vehicle and property inside the vehicle. However, the courts have created several exceptions to the Fourth Amendment’s warrant requirement because of a motor vehicle’s potential mobility and reduced expectation of privacy.

A. Recognize the scope and necessary conditions for conducting the following types of motor vehicle searches:

1. Probable cause searches
   a. The vehicle must have been lawfully stopped or otherwise been lawfully accessible
   b. Officers must have enough facts, knowledge, training or experience to provide probable cause that the item they are seeking will be found inside the vehicle
   c. Any part of the vehicle may be searched as long as what they are searching for could reasonably be located there

2. Seizures of items in plain view
   a. Have probable cause to believe the item is crime-related
   b. Lawfully be in the location to observe the item
   c. Have lawful access to the item

3. Protective searches
   a. Search permitted if the driver is being lawfully detained
   b. Officer reasonably believes based on specific facts, that their may be a weapon or item that could be used as a weapon inside the vehicle
   c. Officer may only search passenger compartment for weapons or potential weapons
4. Consent searches
   a. Same requirements as for any other consent search
   b. Consent must be voluntary
   c. Obtained from a person with the authority to give that consent

5. Searches incident to custodial arrest
   a. Officers must have made a valid arrest of any occupant in the vehicle
   b. May search passenger compartment only
   c. May search all containers within the area

6. Instrumentality searches
   a. The crime was committed inside of the vehicle
   b. Vehicle was the means by which the crime was committed
   c. If a warrantless search, scope will be determined by the nature of the evidence being sought

7. Vehicle inventories
   a. Vehicle must be in lawful custody
   b. Officer must conduct the inventory pursuant to standardized agency policy or regulations
   c. Vehicle inventory is not a search for evidence or contraband

Peace officers must recognize when a search or the seizure of evidence involves intrusion into a subject’s body, special care must be taken to balance the subject’s reasonable expectation of privacy under the Fourth Amendment against the government’s need to collect evidence.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

A. Recognize the legal framework establishing a peace officer’s authority to seize physical evidence from a subject’s body:

1. With a warrant
   a. Officers must show probable cause within the affidavit
   b. Must show credible information to provide a fair probability that the search will result in the discovery of a crime
EXPANDED COURSE OUTLINE
PC 832
LEARNING DOMAIN 16
SEARCH AND SEIZURE

c. Courts require that the more, intense, unusual, prolonged, uncomfortable, unsafe or undignified the procedure contemplated, the greater the showing for the procedure’s necessity must be.

2. Without a warrant

a. Officers must have probable cause to arrest
b. Officers must have probable cause to search
c. Officers must have exigent circumstances
d. Officers must have a need that outweighs the intrusiveness

B. Recognize conditions under which a peace officer may use reasonable force to prevent a subject from swallowing or attempting to swallow evidence

1. Officers may use only the degree of force necessary to overcome resistance and recover the evidence
2. Officers may not use unreasonable force
3. No bodily intrusion is permissible if the force necessary to do it would shock the conscience

C. Recognize the conditions necessary for legally obtaining blood samples

1. Probable cause to arrest
2. Probable cause to search
3. Exigent circumstances

D. Recognize the conditions for legally obtaining the following nonintrusive bodily evidence:

1. Fingerprints
   a. Consent
   b. Probable cause to believe the person is involved in criminal activity
   c. Person has been arrested

2. Handwriting samples
   a. Consent
   b. Probable cause to believe the person is involved in criminal activity
   c. Person has been arrested
V. REQUIRED TESTS

A. The POST-Constructed PC 832 Arrest Written Test

I. LEARNING NEED

Peace officers must know the rules of evidence as they pertain to relevancy, types of evidence, authentication and chain of custody

A. Recognize relevance as it pertains to the admissibility of evidence
   1. Set of rules designed to protect jurors from being misled
   2. To protect constitutional rights
   3. And to ensure a speedy trial

B. Understand what constitutes the legal chain of custody for evidence
   1. A method of authentication
   2. Evidence collected in connection to a crime
   3. Chain of evidence must be established and maintained
   4. Throughout the custody of the evidence

II. LEARNING NEED

Peace officers must know the requirements and exceptions for the admissibility of evidence.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

A. Recognize a peace officer’s role and responsibilities in ensuring the admissibility of evidence:
   1. California Evidence Code 352
   2. Exclusionary Rule
   3. All evidence is legally obtained
   4. Chain of custody has been maintained
   5. All available supporting evidence and witness statements are gathered and documented completely

B. Recognize the requirements and exceptions for admitting hearsay evidence for:
   1. Spontaneous statements
PC 832
PRESENTATION OF EVIDENCE

a. Statement made about an exciting or unnerving event while the person making the statement is still under the excitement or stress of the event
b. Statement is trustworthy because the speaker had no opportunity to fabricate a story
c. Statement must be at or proximate to the event

2. Admissions and confessions
   a. Person is not likely to make such a statement unless it is true
   b. Implied admissions do not involve statements so are not subject to hearsay objections

3. Dying declarations
   a. Victim must die
   b. Any person may witness a dying declaration
   c. Victim must believe that they are going to die
   d. Rationale is that a person about to die will not lie

4. Records and officer testimony
   a. Present memory refreshed
   b. Past memory recorded
   c. Reports must be authenticated

5. Hearsay testimony at preliminary hearings
   a. By active and honorably retired peace officer
   b. Retired officer restricted to statements made when he was an active law enforcement officer
   c. Officer testifying must have 5 years of experience or completed POST approved training course

I. LEARNING NEED

A peace officer’s ability to clearly document the facts and activities of an investigation not only reflects on the officer’s own professionalism, but also on the ability of the justice system to prosecute the criminal case.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

A. Explain the legal basis for requiring investigative reports
   1. PC11107 requires reports on specific misdemeanors and felonies
   2. Reports must include nature and character of the crime, and all particular circumstances
   3. Must include additional and supplemental information related to that crime

II. LEARNING NEED

Peace officers must recognize that the information gathered during their initial investigation in the field will become the foundation for their investigative reports.

A. Discuss the importance of taking notes in preparation for writing reports
   1. Notes are the primary source document for the report
   2. Notes that are incomplete, difficult to read will be of little use
   3. Field notes are taken when details are still fresh in your mind

B. Apply appropriate actions for taking notes during a field interview
   1. Separate involved parties and establish rapport
   2. Take complete notes and/or record the interview
   3. Use the 3 step process

III. LEARNING NEED

Peace officers must recognize in order for an investigative report to be of use in the judicial process, the report must be well organized, and include facts needed to establish that a crime has been committed and all actions taken by officers were appropriate.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES
A. Summarize the primary questions that must be answered by an investigative report

1. What, when
2. Where, who
3. How, why

B. Identify the fundamental content elements in investigative reports, including:

1. Initial information
   a. Establish how the officer became involved with the specific incident and additional background information

2. Identification of the crime
   a. Including the facts that are necessary to show that the specific crime has taken place

3. Identification of involved parties
   a. Such as the reporting person, victim, witness, or suspect

4. Victim/witness statements
   a. Noting the details of the events the involved parties observed or experienced

5. Crime scene specifics
   a. Necessary to accurately reestablish the scene and events of the crime

6. Property information
   a. Including descriptions and details pertaining to stolen items as well as physical evidence

7. Officer actions
   a. Including descriptions of all actions taken by peace officers that are related to the incident
IV. HOURLY REQUIREMENTS

I. LEARNING NEED

Peace officers must recognize that they have the authority to use reasonable force to affect an arrest, to prevent escape, or to overcome resistance as authorized by the California Penal Code. For their safety, and for the safety and well-being of fellow officers, it is critical that peace officers know the laws governing the use of force.

A. Discuss reasonable force as stated by law

1. Reasonable force is a legal term
2. For how much force can be used
3. What kind of force can be used
4. In a given circumstance

B. Discuss the components of the Fourth Amendment standard for determining objective reasonableness as determined by the U.S. Supreme Court

1. Judged from the perspective of a reasonable officer
2. Examined through the eyes of an officer on the scene at the time the force was applied, not the vision of 20/20 hindsight
3. Based on the facts and circumstances confronting the officer without regard to the officer’s underlying intent or motivation
4. Based on the knowledge that the officer acted properly under the established law at the time

C. Explain the legal framework establishing a peace officer’s authority during a legal arrest, including:

1. Subject’s requirement to submit to arrest without resistance
   a. If a person has knowledge or by the exercise of reasonable care, should have knowledge
   b. That he is being arrested by a peace officer
   c. It is the duty of such person to refrain from using force or any weapon to resist such arrest
2. Peace officer’s authority to use reasonable force during a detention or arrest
   a. Officer may use reasonable force to effect an arrest
   b. Officer may use reasonable force to prevent escape
   c. Officer may use reasonable force to overcome resistance

D. Identify the circumstances set forth in the California Penal Code when a peace officer has the authority use force
   1. To effect an arrest
   2. To prevent escape
   3. To overcome resistance

E. Discuss the level of authority agency policies have regarding the use of force by a peace officer
   1. Detailed considerations and regulations are established by each agency’s policies
   2. Limitations on the use of force are set by agency policy to provide reasonable guidelines for officers
   3. Officer are responsible for becoming familiar with and complying with their agency’s policies and guidelines regarding use of force

II. LEARNING NEED

Peace officers must recognize that they have a range of force options available to them. However, in all cases the use of force must be reasonable compared to the threat, resistance, and other circumstances known to the officer at the time the force was used.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

A. Define the term “force option”
   1. Is the choices identified to a peace officer in each agency’s policy documentation

B. Identify that the objective of using force is to overcome resistance to gain control of an individual and the situation
   1. Use the type of force which is reasonable under the circumstances
   2. Use only the amount of force reasonable to overcome resistance and gain or maintain control of a subject
   3. Use only the type and amount of force permitted by agency policy

20-2
C. Recognize force options and the amount of force peace officers may use based on the subject’s resistance

1. Peace officers must use the force option appropriate for the situation
2. Conditions may change rapidly
3. Officers must continually reevaluate the subject and situation
4. Officers must be prepared to adjust, and transition as needed to the appropriate tools and techniques

III. LEARNING NEED

Peace officers must fully comprehend their authority, responsibility, and liability regarding the use of deadly force as authorized by law

A. Identify the legal standard for the use of deadly force

1. To protect oneself or others when the officer has the objective and reasonable belief
2. That his life or the life of another is in imminent danger of death or serious physical injury
3. Based upon the totality of the facts known to the officer at the time

B. Identify the factors required to establish sufficiency of fear for the use of deadly force

1. The circumstances must be sufficient to excite the fears of a reasonable person in like circumstances
2. The person must not act under the influence of fear alone. There has to be some circumstance or overt act apart from the officer’s fear
3. The decision to use deadly force must be made to save one’s self or another from great bodily injury or death

C. Recognize facts an officer should consider when determining whether or not to use deadly force

1. Preparation by training
2. Emotional maturity
3. Existing circumstances
PC 832
USE OF FORCE

D. Discuss the role of agency policies regarding the use of deadly force

1. Use of warning shots
2. Shooting at nonviolent felons, juveniles or moving vehicles
3. Shooting from a moving vehicle

E. Recognize the law regarding justifiable homicide by a public officer and the circumstances under which the homicide is considered justifiable

1. In obedience to any judgment of a competent court
2. When necessarily committed in overcoming actual resistance to the execution of some legal process, or in the discharge of any other legal duty
3. When necessarily committed in retaking felons who have been rescued or have escaped, or when necessarily committed in arresting persons charged with a felony, and who are fleeing from justice or resisting such arrest

IV. LEARNING NEED

When a force option has been employed, peace officers’ reports must include the critical information to ensure that the chronology, specifics of the events, and the people involved are properly documented.

A. Describe why complete documentation of the use of force is critical to the peace officer and the peace officer’s agency, to include:

1. Justification for using force
2. Relevant factors and detail

V. Peace officers must be ready to, and capable of, safely taking control of a dangerous situation.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

A. Discuss factors that can affect a peace officer’s response when threatened with danger, to include:

1. Fear
   a. Reasonable
   b. Unreasonable
2. Anger
PC 832
USE OF FORCE

a. Denying or suppressing anger for long periods may lead to emotional problems
b. Denying or suppressing anger for long periods of time may lead to physical problems
c. Acceptable anger may allow officers to be assertive and display command presence

3. Indecision and hesitation

a. Hype-vigilance (freezing)
b. Attention too narrowed to consider alternate actions
c. Inability to select a response may have deadly results

B. Give examples of acceptable techniques for managing anger

1. Manage anger when it is the lower end of the emotional scale
2. Express anger in an appropriate and controlled manner while the feeling is at the lower end of the emotional scale and easier to control
3. Channel anger appropriately to enable you to keep fighting during a crisis situation

C. Describe the benefits of ongoing physical and mental training for peace officers involving the use of force

1. Training and practice in both physical and mental skills
2. Provides the understanding
3. And manipulative ability needed by a peace officer
4. In the use of force in dangerous situations

VI. LEARNING NEED

Peace officers must recognize the consequences of using unreasonable force, and their legal and ethical responsibilities to intervene if the force being used by another peace officer is inappropriate or unlawful.

A. Explain the consequences of an officer’s failure to intervene when unreasonable force is used by another peace officer

1. Officer may face both criminal and civil liability
2. Disciplinary action
3. If Officer fails to intervene and prevent other officers from violating constitutional rights if they had the opportunity.

I. LEARNING NEED

Peace officers must have a general understanding of the total range of basic criminal investigation procedures in order to make the appropriate decisions regarding the identification and preservation of evidence at the scene of a crime.

A. Identify the goal of a criminal investigation
   1. Successful prosecution of the guilty
   2. Exoneration of the innocent

B. Identify the primary purpose of conducting an:
   1. Initial survey of a crime scene
      a. Secure the scene
      b. Noting immediately visible evidence
      c. Deny entry to the scene
   2. Crime scene search
      a. Systematic, coordinated effort
      b. To locate physical evidence that indicates that a crime has taken place
      c. To identify individuals who may have committed the crime

II. LEARNING NEED

Peace officers must be aware of, and comply with, the general guidelines for the collection, packaging, and processing of physical evidence found at a crime scene to ensure that each piece of evidence is admissible in a court of law.

A. Identify the primary reason for establishing a chain of custody record
   1. A complete and accurate chain of custody record is absolutely essential in
   2. Establishing the validity and integrity of evidence in court.

B. Prepare the information that should be noted on a chain of custody record

I. LEARNING NEED

For their own safety and the safety of others, peace officers must maintain awareness and respond appropriately when confronted by a potential hazard or threat.

A. Demonstrate principles of defensive tactics, to include:

1. Awareness
   a. Subject’s hands
   b. Friends or associates of the subject
   c. Cover and concealment

2. Balance
   a. Keep the gun side away from the subject
   b. Bend the knees slightly, do not lock them
   c. Proper distance

3. Control
   a. General control
   b. Physical control
   c. Both general and physical control are gained through confidence

B. Describe parts of an officer’s body that are most vulnerable to serious injury

1. Head
2. Neck
3. Throat

C. Describe parts of an officer’s body that may be used as personal weapons for self-defense or to overcome resistance by a subject

1. Knee
2. Forearm
3. Feet
II. LEARNING NEED

Conducting a person search can be dangerous for peace officers. A peace officer’s actions and reactions in these situations should always allow for a margin of safety while maintaining a position of advantage.

A. Explain factors to consider when approaching a subject and conducting a plain view search
   1. Subject’s clothing
   2. Subject’s hands
   3. Additional subjects

B. Demonstrate an approach to safely and effectively conduct a person search
   1. Front waistband
   2. Upper body
   3. Lower body

C. Discuss locations where weapons and/or contraband can be concealed on a subject’s body
   1. Hat or scarf
   2. Mouth
   3. Underarms

D. Explain agency considerations and restrictions that may be common regarding a search of a person of the opposite sex
   1. Maintaining officer safety
   2. Availability and use of officers of the same sex
   3. How to avoid false claims of misconduct or sexual assault

E. Explain cover officer responsibilities
   1. Maintain constant observation of the overall situation
   2. Exhibit command presence or professional demeanor toward subject being searched
   3. Protect the searching officer from possible interference by onlookers or associates of the subject

F. Discuss cover officer responsibilities during a search of a subject
   1. Maintain constant observation of the overall situation
2. Assist in restraining the subject if necessary
3. Assist the searching officer by taking possession of any found weapons

III. LEARNING NEED

Peace officers must be ready and physically capable of taking control of a subject and to justify their actions if the subject refuses to follow verbal commands, physically resists, or attempts to attack the peace officer during a detention or arrest situation.

A. Discuss a peace officer’s justification to use controlling force on a subject
   1. Objective is to gain compliance of a subject
   2. Basic use of force philosophy defines the degree or amount of force which may be reasonable to overcome resistance
   3. It is illegal and immoral for peace officers to use their authority and position to punish anyone

B. Explain advantages and limitations a peace officer should consider when applying a control hold
   1. May help the officer to guide the subject in a desired direction
   2. May help an officer prevent escape
   3. Once compliance is achieved, controlling force should be reevaluated

C. Explain advantages and limitations a peace officer should consider when performing a takedown technique
   1. Close proximity of the officer and the subject
   2. A single technique may not be adequate to gain complete control of the subject
   3. The physical motion of a takedown technique may distract the officer and allow the subject to gain access to the officer’s weapon
IV. LEARNING NEED

The application of a restraint device (i.e., handcuffs, plastic flex cuffs, leg restraint devices, full body restraints) on a subject can be a difficult and potentially dangerous task for a peace officer. Peace officers must be proficient in the use of proper methods to ensure their safety and the safety of the subjects.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

A. Explain the purpose of using restraint devices on a subject

1. Minimize attack on the officer or others
2. Minimize escape of the prisoner
3. Minimize combat between prisoners

B. Explain potential hazards when using handcuffs as a restraint device

1. A subject who is left unattended in the officer’s vehicle may escape
2. Handcuffs not applied properly may be a threat to officer safety
3. Visual contact and control of the subject are not maintained may lead to evidence destruction

C. Demonstrate the correct positioning of handcuffs on a subject

1. The shape of the handcuff should correspond with the shape of the subject’s wrist
2. Handcuffs should not be applied over the top of clothing or jewelry
3. Handcuffs should be double locked when tactically safe

D. Discuss responsibilities of the contact and cover officers when handcuffing multiple subjects

1. Contact officer handcuffs the subjects
2. Contact officer alerts the cover officer of weapons found
3. Cover officer speaks only when a situation arises that is not controlled by the contact officer

V. LEARNING NEED

When transporting a prisoner, peace officers must recognize that the unpredictable nature of prisoners can create a serious threat. Officers must be aware of safety hazards and appropriate transporting procedures to ensure their safety and the safety of the prisoner.
LEARNING OBJECTIVES

A. Describe common transporting procedures that maximize officer safety and prevent prisoner escape
   1. Search the prisoner
   2. Use safety belts
   3. Observation of the prisoner while transporting

B. Describe the safe and secure positioning of a prisoner in an officer’s vehicle
   1. Prisoners should be positioned to ensure the safety and welfare of the officers and prisoners
   2. Peace officers must observe prisoners closely while transporting them
   3. Prisoners should be seated in an upright position and wear seat belts

VI. REQUIRED TESTS

Exercise testing is mandated and regulated by POST Commission Procedure D-1, which states:

Academies/presenters shall provide the following to students who fail a required exercise test on the first attempt:

- An opportunity to review their results
- A reasonable amount of time, as determined by the academy/presenter, to prepare for a retest
- An opportunity to be tested on the failed test, if the student fails the second test, the student fails the course

Required exercise testing for each format of the basic course is set forth in the Training and Testing Specifications (TTS). The student is required to successfully pass each exercise test outlined below for the specific course of instruction the student is enrolled in.

ARREST METHODS/DEFENSIVE TACTICS SAFETY

All arrest methods/defensive tactics exercise testing must be conducted under written academy/presenter safety procedures and or protocols established in accordance with every aspect of presenter safety procedures and or protocols during arrest methods/defensive tactics training and testing.

All one on one force exercise testing must be conducted with a safety officer/referee overseeing the test. The safety officer/referee has absolute control over the test and can call a halt to or stop the exercise test anytime the risk for student/staff injury exists.
Exercise tests developed by POST that specifically prescribes the PC 832/Module III defensive tactics techniques which requires the student to demonstrate basic search and control methods

A. An exercise test that requires the student to demonstrate competency in the ability to conduct the following searches

- Visual Search
- Cursory/Pat/Frisk Search
- Full Body Search Incident to Arrest

The student will demonstrate competency in the following performance dimensions:

1. Safety
2. Awareness
3. Balance
4. Control
5. Controlling Force
6. Proper Techniques
7. Verbal Commands/Instructions

Presenters must use the POST-developed PC832/Module III Arrest Methods/Defensive Tactics Competency Exercise Test Form or a presenter-developed form approved by POST, which minimally includes the performance dimensions used for this exercise test.

B. An exercise test that requires the student to demonstrate competency in effective handcuffing technique(s).

The student will demonstrate competency in the following performance dimensions:

1. Safety
2. Awareness
3. Balance
4. Control
5. Controlling Force
6. Proper Techniques
7. Verbal Commands/Instructions

Presenters must use the POST-developed PC832/Module III Arrest Methods/Defensive Tactics Competency Exercise Test Form or a presenter-developed form approved by POST, which minimally includes the performance dimensions used for this exercise test.

C. An exercise test that requires the student to demonstrate competency in a minimum of one control hold technique.

The student will demonstrate competency in the following performance dimensions:
1. Safety
2. Awareness
3. Balance
4. Control
5. Controlling Force
6. Proper Techniques
7. Verbal Commands/Instructions

Presenters must use the POST-developed PC832/Module III Arrest Methods/Defensive Tactics Competency Exercise Test Form or a presenter-developed form approved by POST, which minimally includes the performance dimensions used for this exercise test.

D. An exercise test that requires the student to demonstrate competency in a minimum of one Takedown technique.

The student will demonstrate competency in the following performance dimensions

1. Safety
2. Awareness
3. Balance
4. Control
5. Controlling Force
6. Proper Techniques
7. Verbal Commands/Instructions

Presenters must use the POST-developed PC832/Module III Arrest Methods/Defensive Tactics Competency Exercise Test Form or a presenter-developed form approved by POST, which minimally includes the performance dimensions used for this exercise test.

VII. REQUIRED LEARNING ACTIVITIES

A. Student will participate in learning activity that will reinforce the student’s ability to demonstrate the role of a cover officer during a field contact to include:

1. Assuming a position of advantage and control
2. Maintaining proper balance and control
3. Maintaining awareness
4. Protecting the searching officer from possible interference
5. Physically assisting the searching officer if it becomes necessary

I. LEARNING NEED

Peace officers must know and practice all procedures for the safe handling of all firearms while on and off duty.

A. State the four fundamental rules of firearms safety
   1. Treat all firearms as if loaded.
   2. Point in safe direction
   3. Fingers off trigger until firing
   4. Be sure of target and area beyond

B. Explain basic safety guidelines to be followed at a firing range
   1. Entering range
   2. On the line
   3. Weapon location

C. Describe the safety precautions for proper storage of firearms
   1. Children/unauthorized persons
   2. Ammunition
   3. Lockable containers/ safes

II. LEARNING NEED

Peace officers must know the workings, the capabilities, and limitations of firearms in order to operate them safely and effectively.

A. Describe the basic information about a .38 caliber pistol including:
   1. Primary components and their functions
   2. Basic steps for loading/unloading.
   3. Steps for rendering the semiautomatic firearm safe

B. Describe the cycle of operation that takes place with each single pull of a semiautomatic pistol trigger
   1. Firing
   2. Unlocking
3. Extracting
4. Ejecting
5. Cocking
6. Feeding
7. Chambering
8. Locking

C. Describe the basic information about a revolver, including:

1. Primary components and their functions
   a. Frame
   b. Cylinders
   c. Extractor rod
   d. Barrel
   e. Rifling
   f. Muzzle
   g. Sights
   h. Trigger
   i. Trigger guard
   j. Hammer
   k. Firing pin
   l. Grip
   m. Back strap

2. Steps for loading/unloading
   a. Follow safety guidelines
   b. Open cylinder
   c. Visually inspect each chamber

3. Steps for rendering the revolver safe
   a. Follow safety rules
   b. Open cylinder
   c. Visually inspect and leave the cylinder open for inspection

III. LEARNING NEED

Peace officers must know the capabilities and limitations of the ammunition they use in their firearms to operate them safely and effectively.

A. State the guidelines for the safe handling of ammunition

1. Treat every round as fully charged

PC 832
LEARNING DOMAIN 35
FIREARMS/CHEMICAL AGENTS

2. Use the type and caliber for the specific weapon only
3. Avoid dropping live rounds or hitting them
4. All ammo should be replaced on a regular basis

B. Describe the primary components of firearm cartridges
   1. Primer
   2. Powder charge
   3. Bullet and cartridge casings

C. Explain the chain of events that takes place when a projectile is discharged from a cartridge
   1. Primer detonated
   2. Powder ignited
   3. Bullet expelled

IV. LEARNING NEED

Peace officers must know how to properly inspect, clean, and care for their firearms to ensure that they function safely and effectively.

A. Describe the components that may prevent problems and that should be examined during a routine safety inspection
   1. Cleanliness of weapons
   2. Proper ammunition/feeding issues
   3. All components of the weapon working properly

B. Describe the materials, equipment, and environment needed to properly clean firearms
   1. Solvent
   2. Lubricant
   3. Patches
   4. Personal protection materials
   5. Pipe cleaners, cotton swabs etc
   6. Screwdrivers
   7. Bore brushes
   8. Cylinder brushes
   9. Cleaning rods
   10. Patch holder or tips
   11. Storage containers for the above items
C. Apply routine procedures for cleaning firearms
   1. Barrel assembly
   2. Slide assembly
   3. Spring and guide assembly
   4. Frame assembly

V. LEARNING NEED

Peace officers must comprehend and practice the fundamental skills of firing firearms to be effective in reactive and precision situations during live fire exercises.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

A. Apply the proper steps for drawing and holstering
   1. Smooth continuous motion—no wasted motion
   2. Acquire grip—keep support hand away and clear of muzzle
   3. Extend handgun down range toward target
   4. Remove trigger finger
   5. De-cock hammer
   6. Point handgun toward holster
   7. Firmly seat handgun into holster
   8. Refasten the safety strap

B. Demonstrate the following elements to accurately shoot a firearm:
   1. Grip
      a. Web of hand placed high on back-strap
      b. Index finger touches trigger at mid-point
      c. Front sight, rear sight and radial bone are aligned

   2. Stance
      a. Isosceles
      b. Weaver
      c. Modified Weaver
      d. Feet are shoulder-width apart
      e. Weight evenly distributed
      f. Upper body is upright or bent slightly forward
      g. Head and neck are erect
      h. Shooter is able to move in any direction
3. Breath control
   a. Proper breath control
   b. Breathe in a smooth normal manner

4. Sight alignment/sight picture
   a. Align sights-front sight in the notch of rear sight
   b. Top of front sight should be level with top of rear sight
   c. Align target-top center of front sight exactly on point of impact
   d. Focus on top center of the front sight—rear sight should be blurry

5. Trigger control
   a. Trigger finger must operate independently
   b. Smooth continuous pressure on the trigger
   c. Straight to the rear with no stops or jerks
   d. Don’t anticipate the “bang”

6. Follow-through
   a. Concentrate on front sight throughout the firing sequence
   b. Maintain trigger in the rearward position
   c. Reacquire the sight picture
   d. Prepare to fire again

C. Describe the types of malfunctions and demonstrate clearing methods for:

1. Semiautomatic pistols
   a. Failure to fire
   b. Failure to eject
   c. Failure to extract
   d. Failure to feed
   e. Rap, Tap, retract slide and assess the problem

2. Revolvers
   a. Failure to fire
   b. Slow cylinder
   c. Stopped cylinder
   d. Check chamber for round or broken firing pin
   e. Defective cartridge
   f. Dirty weapon
   g. Broken spring, loose ejector rod

VI. REQUIRED TESTS

Exercise testing is mandated and regulated by POST Commission Procedure D-1, which states:

Academies/presenters shall provide the following to students who fail a required exercise test on the first attempt:

- An opportunity to review their test results
- A reasonable amount of time, as determined by the academy/presenter, to prepare for a retest
- An opportunity to be retested on the failed test, if the student fails the second test, the student fails the course

Required exercise testing for each format of the basic course is set forth in the Training and Testing Specifications (TTS). The student is required to successfully pass each exercise test outlined below for the specific course of instruction the student is enrolled in.

FIREARMS SAFETY

All firearms exercise testing must be conducted under written academy/presenter safety procedures and or protocols established in accordance with the POST safety guidelines. Students are required to comply with every aspect of presenter safety procedures and or protocols during firearms training and testing.

A. An exercise test developed by POST that specifically prescribes the PC 832/Module III course of fire, which requires the student to demonstrate basic handgun shooting principles under daylight conditions.

Using a presenter approved handgun, the student must:

- fire 36 rounds of service ammunition and
- achieve a minimum score of 29 hits in the 7-ring on a B-27 single target

The PC 832 Handgun Course of Fire:

- 12 rounds must be fired from a distance of 3 yards in 30 seconds
- 12 rounds must be fired from a distance of 7 yards in 30 seconds
- 12 rounds must be fired from a distance of 15 yards in 45 seconds

LEARNING DOMAIN 35
FIREARMS/CHEMICAL AGENTS

The student is required to tactically load and reload the handgun using the loading device authorized by the presenter and successfully clear any malfunctions that may occur during the course of fire.

The student will demonstrate competency in the following performance dimensions:

1. Firearms Safety
2. Mechanical Functions
3. Manipulations
4. Basic Shooting Principles
5. Accuracy

Presenters must use the POST-developed PC832/Module III Firearms Competency Exercise Test Form or a presenter-developed form approved by POST, which minimally includes the performance dimensions used for this exercise test.

VII. REQUIRED LEARNING ACTIVITIES

A. Each student will participate in a learning activity designed to reinforce the ability to manipulate their assigned firearm.

If the firearm is a semiautomatic pistol, the learning activity shall minimally include the following techniques to safely and effectively manipulate the semiautomatic pistol in both the left and right hand:

1. Render the weapon safe
2. Release slide
3. Lock slide open
4. Rack slide
5. Holster weapon
6. Unholster weapon
7. Load Weapon
8. Unload weapon from the holster
9. Clear any malfunction
10. In battery reload
11. Out of battery speed reload

If firearm is a revolver, the learning activity shall minimally include the following techniques to safely and effectively manipulate the revolver in both the left and right hand:

1. Render the weapon safe
2. Open cylinder
3. Close cylinder
4. Holster weapon
5. Unholster weapon

6. Load/reload revolver with authorized loading device
7. Clear any malfunctions

B. The student will participate in a learning activity to reinforce the ability to inspect, clean and properly maintain their service handgun. The activity shall minimally include techniques to:

1. Visually inspect the weapon
2. Properly clean the weapon
3. Ensure the weapon is maintained according to the manufacturer’s specifications
