LEARN BASIC NETWORKING FOR THE HOME OR SMALL OFFICE

Weed / COS – College of the Siskiyous is offering Home and Small Office Basic Networking (CSCI 63) beginning July 9 at the Yreka Campus. This class will meet on Thursday evenings from 6 to 9 p.m. in the Yreka Campus Technology Center until August 13, 2009. Larry Glenn and Mike Midkiff will instruct this short term class.

No prior experience is required for this class. Students will learn how to share multiple computers, printers, and the internet using one internet connection. Basic networking using Windows and basic network connections (wired and wireless) will also be covered. This class is designed to be fun and interactive.

Registration is now open. For more information, call the Weed Campus Welcome Center at 938-5555, the Yreka Campus at 842-1245, the instructor at 938-5892, or email glenn@siskiyous.edu. To register, visit the Weed or Yreka Campus Welcome Centers or register online at www.siskiyous.edu and click on “COS Online Services” under the Navigator Logo.
