UNDERSTANDING DISABILITY TO BEGIN AUGUST 18

Weed/COS –Beginning Tuesday, August 18, College of the Siskiyous will offer Understanding Disability (ADHS 26 / #8236) at the Weed Campus in the Emergency Services Training Center (ESTC), room 8-107. The class will meet Tuesday evenings from 6 to 9 p.m. until December 15, 2009. Gita Bhushan is the instructor.

This course provides a survey of diverse disability conditions and explores the history and culture of the disability experience in the United States. Students will learn how disability is defined from a physical/mental/developmental standpoint, from a social standpoint, and from a ‘rights-based,’ access standpoint.

For more information, contact Instructor Bhushan by email bhushan@siskiyous.edu or call the COS Career and Technical Education Office at (530) 938-5512. To register, visit either the Weed or Yreka Campus, or save on gas by registering online at www.siskiyous.edu and clicking on “COS Online Services.” The Yreka Campus may be reached by calling (530) 842-1245, the Weed Campus at (530) 938-5555, or toll-free (888) 397-4339.
