POPULAR BALLROOM DANCING CLASS TO BEGIN IN YREKA

Weed / COS –College of the Siskiyous invites students interested in Beginning Ballroom Dancing to register for classes to be held at the Yreka YMCA. Instructors Rick and Peggy Nixon, professional Ballroom Dancers and former ballet dancers, will instruct this fun class (PEAC 332 / #M7014). The class will meet Friday evenings, August 21 through September 18 from 6 to 8 p.m. This class introduces students to the basic steps of six of the most popular Ballroom and Latin dances. Styles of dance to be taught include Cha-cha, Samba, Salsa and Swing/Jive. As former ballet dancers, the Nixons have a firm belief in the basics. If you master the basics and gain an understanding of the basics, the more complex steps will be easy for you in the future. For specific class information, contact the instructors at (415) 215-2652 or send an email to davisnixon@msn.com. Cost for the entire series is $30 per person.

For more information or to register, visit either the Weed or Yreka Campuses or call (530) 842-1245. Students who wish to save on gas and time may also register online at www.siskiyous.edu and click on the Navigator Logo.
