Siskiyous Musical Theatre Performance Major Transferring to BYU, Provo

Weed / COS – Meghan Smith, College of the Siskiyous Music and Theatre Performance major and 2018 graduate has announced she is transferring to Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah this fall where she will continue her education in Musical Theatre.

A 2016 graduate of Lower Lake High School, in Lower Lake, California, Smith came to College of the Siskiyous in fall of 2016 and immediately became immersed in the college environment. She could be found in the Admissions and Records Office as a student worker, was a Student Ambassador, and over the course of her two years in Weed, could often be found on the stage performing in COS plays and musicals, and vocal jazz ensemble concerts. Those who attended the College of the Siskiyous fall 2017 production of “Spamalot” will remember Smith best in her role as “Lady of the Lake.”

When asked what she hopes to be doing in ten years Meghan replied “performing in New York or Chicago and eventually teaching community college or university level classes.”
