2019 Winter Intersession and Spring Semester Registration is Open

COS / Weed –Registration for the 2019 Winter Intersession and Spring Semester at College of the Siskiyous is open. Register anytime, anywhere using our REG365 system. COS provides transfer classes to four-year colleges, associate degrees, vocational certificate programs, job skills classes, and courses for personal enrichment and recreation. Winter Intersession classes will begin January 2, 2019.

The College offers many services to students including advising and counseling, two residential lodges, tutoring, financial aid, and an onsite Campus Gift and Book Shop where students may also purchase their books and supplies. There are many courses to choose from, however, popular classes and transfer classes quickly fill. Be sure to register early to get the classes you need and want.

For more information about attending COS or to schedule an appointment with an advisor or counselor, call the Counseling and Advising Office at (530) 938-5353. The office will provide you with the help you may need to clarify and successfully complete your academic and career goals. Advisors and counselors are generally available from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. To schedule an appointment, call (530) 938-5353 or email your request to counselingservices@siskiyous.edu
