College of the Siskiyous Welcomes Interim Vice President of Instruction

Weed / COS – College of the Siskiyous is pleased to welcome Dr. Carole J. Bogue as Interim Vice President of Instruction. She will serve as Interim Vice President for the next five months as the College works to fill the position permanently. Dr. Bogue began her duties on January 22, 2019.

“I am really looking forward to working with the Administration, Faculty and Staff at College of the Siskiyous,” commented Dr. Bogue. “The high quality programs offered to students are very impressive, and I am excited to be able to contribute to the future of Siskiyou County.”

Dr. Bogue earned her Ph.D. from the University of Colorado, Boulder; her Master of Science in Reading, from the University of Nebraska at Omaha; and, her Bachelor of Arts in Music and Education degree from Duchesne College, located in Omaha, Nebraska. Over the years she has served in various administrative capacities in the California Community College System, including:

- Acting Dean of Instruction (40%), Assistant Dean of Developmental Studies, and instructor at San Jose City College and Evergreen Valley College
- Six years as Vice President of Instruction at Cañada College
- Eight years as Vice President for Academic Affairs, Monterey Peninsula College

Dr. Bogue’s many years of work within the system culminated in a statewide leadership role as Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs in the California Community Colleges Chancellor’s Office, where she served for four years. Subsequent to her work at the Chancellor’s Office, Dr. Bogue served in numerous interim administrative positions including:

- Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs, Hartnell College (Fall term, 2009)
- Dean of Academic Affairs, Hartnell College (2010-2011)
- Dean of Math, Science, Engineering, Library, and PE/Athletics, Hartnell College (2011-2012)

- Vice President of Instruction, Laney College (June-October, 2013)
- Executive Vice President, Student Learning, Oxnard College (Fall term, 2014)
- Dean of Arts and Science, Columbia College (Fall term, 2015)

Since 2016, Dr. Bogue has researched and wrote a book on the late Dr. Donald E. Carline's theories of learning. Last year, her efforts culminated in publishing her research in Five Types of Learning: Timeless Wisdom and Recent Research. In addition to this publication, she authored Studying in the Content Areas: Social Sciences; Studying in the Content Areas: The Sciences; and Studying the Content Areas: Mathematics and Business. These books were designed for use by community college students.

"I believe it is our good fortune to have Dr. Bogue join us at College of the Siskiyous for the next several months while the District conducts a national search for a permanent Vice President of Instruction," said Dr. Stephen Schoonmaker, COS Superintendent/President. "I invite the community to join me in welcoming Dr. Bogue to not just College of the Siskiyous, but to Siskiyou County!"
