Local Artist to Teach Classes at College of the Siskiyous

Weed / COS – This summer, local artist Mark Oliver, will be teaching three noncredit classes at College of the Siskiyous. Art for Older Adults (OLAD 0508) is designed to introduce the older adult student to art. Students who register for this class will learn to use a variety of materials, work within principles and elements of art, and complete a project. Through the use of acrylic, oil, watercolor, and graphite, beginning and advanced students will study and develop art techniques through drawing and painting exercises. Individual and group instruction includes composition, color mixing, and the proper use of brushes and mediums such as paper, and canvas.

Mark Oliver is a visual artist who has exhibited his work throughout the United States, Europe, and Mexico. He has won numerous awards and grants and most recently won the West Coast Biennial at Turtle Bay in Redding. Mark's classes will emphasize how to maintain a visual arts practice focusing on individual interests in the arts. For more information call (530) 841-5834 or email continuingeducation@siskiyous.edu. Registration is open.
