COS OFFERS PERSONAL BANKING, FINANCE, AND MONEY MANAGEMENT CLASS

Weed/COS – During tough economic times where costs keep rising, but income stays the same, it's important to know how to get the most for your money and make it spread even further. College of the Siskiyous wants to help you make your money work for you instead of you working for your money. COS is offering a great course on Personal Banking, Finance, and Money Management (BA 34 / #7238) beginning Thursday, August 17, at the Weed Campus in McCloud Hall, room 4-103. The class will meet weekly on Thursday mornings from 11 to 11:50 a.m. Instructor Dennis Sbarbaro, will teach this 2 unit class until December 16, 2010.

This class emphasizes the understanding and application of basic foundational financial and money management principles and concepts. Course topics are designed to enhance and develop a student's financial skills set for use during various phases of their life cycle.

To register, visit either the Weed or Yreka Campus, or save on gas by registering online at www.siskiyous.edu and clicking on the Navigator logo. The Yreka Campus may be reached by calling (530) 842-1245, the Weed Campus at (530) 938-5555, or toll-free (888) 397-4339.
