

FALL 2012 FLEX ACTIVITIES

Flex Activity No. 100-12

What's New with Program Review?

Time: 9:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Presenter: Steve Reynolds

Location: McCloud 4-103

Flex Credit: 1 day, 3 hours

All programs and departments are required to complete a program review each year. This workshop will discuss the importance of program review, its place in institutional planning and budgeting, and some nuts and bolts of how to get it done.

Flex Activity No. 101-12

ETUDES Users Workshop

Time: 1:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Presenters: Margie White

Location: McCloud 4-102 (Mac Lab)

Flex Credit: 1 day, 3 hours

If you are currently using ETUDES, or have taken the Etudes 101 training and are ready for the next step, this is the workshop for you. The first hour will include a formal overview of the latest updates in Etudes, COS policies, and current distance education issues. The remaining time will consist of individual training and support in a lab-type atmosphere. Bring your questions and class materials.

Flex Activity No. 102-12

Want to get a jump on updating your courses? Do you have courses that have needed updating for a while? Or, maybe you want to create a new course? Join Jayne and Sean to get help on all of these things. Limited to 20 participants.

Flex Activity No. 104-12

Educational Technologies: Effective, Low-Cost Ways to Engage Students

Time: 1:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Presenter: Margie White

Location: McCloud 4-102 (Mac Lab)

Flex Credit: 1 day, 3 hours

Are you wondering if using YouTube videos and open educational resources will help your students engage and succeed? Would you like to take advantage of the library's newest digital resources? Are you interested in teaching online or adding an online component to your class? In this workshop you'll see a demonstration of some of the educational tools available online today. You will have time to explore, create, and discuss best practices with your peers.
