  - a. Eligible for GP Funding

Discussion ensued regarding possible supplanting. The last time the CCSSE was administered was 2014 (or at least that was the last time we posted data on the CCSSE). The District pays for Noel Levitz. The College used to alternate uses of the assessments. An argument to use the CCSSE is that it does provide rich data that can measure student success.

ACTION: Rexford to research how the CCSSE has been funded previously and, depending on the outcome, a request for GP Funds to be submitted to cover the costs of the CCSSE.
