Hello Siskiyous and Happy Classified Professionals Week!

This week, we celebrate California Classified School Employee Week, a special time dedicated to recognizing the extraordinary individuals who serve as the backbone of our institution.

While our mission centers on student success, that mission simply could not be realized without the dedication, expertise, and tireless efforts of our Classified Professionals. They are the first faces our students see when they walk onto campus, the guiding hands that help them navigate their educational journeys, and the dedicated teams working behind the scenes to keep our operations running seamlessly. Resolution No. 2025-2026-09 Recognizing Classified Professionals Week May 17 – 23, 2026 will be presented to the Board of Trustees at their regular meeting scheduled tomorrow, Tuesday, May 19, 2026.

Commencement is the most sacred and joyful highlight of our academic year, and Friday's ceremony was nothing short of spectacular. Watching our graduates walk across the stage, surrounded by their families and communities, is a powerful reminder of why we do this work.

An event of this magnitude, and one that runs so seamlessly, does not happen by accident. It is the result of immense planning, coordination, and tireless dedication behind the scenes. I want to extend my deepest, most heartfelt gratitude to the teams who brought this day to life. An event like commencement truly takes a village. Because of your collaborative efforts, our students received the dignified, celebratory, and flawless send-off they so deeply deserve. Thank you all for your hard work, your long hours, and your commitment to our students and their families. I am incredibly proud to work alongside such an extraordinary team.

Please note that due to the upcoming three-day holiday and shorter work week, there will be no All-College Email during the week of May 25, 2026. As we transition into the summer* session, All-College emails will be sent on an as-needed basis.

Thank you and happy finals week!
