About Mac DeCausmaker

Mac DeCausmaker was a Scott Valley native. He graduated from Etna High School in 1999 and attended College of the Siskiyous as a student in the Fire Science Program, graduating with an Associate Degree. Mac was also an emergency medical technician and a volunteer with the Fort Jones Fire Department. In 2002, he began his career with CalFIRE following completion of the Fire Fighter I Academy at COS. Mac later attended and graduated from the CalFIRE Company Officer Academy in Lone, CA.

As a Fire Fighter I and a Fire Apparatus Engineer, Mac worked throughout Siskiyou County, and was currently assigned to the CalFIRE Pondosa Fire Station as a fire apparatus engineer when he passed away. The family and friends of Mac DeCausmaker established this scholarship in his memory an honor of his service.
