

Walking Through Textbook Options

Do you need a textbook?

- Yes, then answer the next question: Are you enrolled in EOPS/TRiO?

Are you enrolled in EOPS/TRiO?

- Yes, then see your counselor for textbook vouchers
- No, then answer the next question: Is your class on the list of Zero Textbook Costs Classes?

Is your class on the list of Zero textbook Cost Classes?

Yes, then your instructor or the Library have arranged for FREE access to your class textbook! Your textbook will be online. Some conditions may apply to library ebooks so read the class list info carefully and check out what the book looks like!

Will an ebook work for you?

- Yes, then: Great! You are all set for the semester.
- No, then answer the next question: Are you eligible for Basecamp textbook assistance?

Are you eligible for Basecamp textbook assistance?

Contact Basecamp to find out if you are eligible for textbook assistance.

- Yes, then: Yay! Basecamp will walk you through what they can offer
- No, then you have Free Options and Purchase Options:

Free Options

- Use a Library reserve textbook! Books must be used in the library, whether you kick back in a comfy armchair, take photos with your phone, or make photocopies.
 - TIP: Remember that you are sharing the book with the rest of your class. Don't wait until the last minute in case someone else is using it!

Purchase Options

1. You can buy or rent a copy of your book from the COS Bookstore. If you can't make it to the Weed Campus, they offer Yreka pickup and mailing services.
2. You can buy or possibly rent from your favorite online booksellers.