Subject: 6-30-21 All College Update: Lava Fire and Reopening
Date: Wednesday, June 30, 2021 11:25:30 AM

Hello Siskiyous,

Unfortunately, it looks like containment of the fire has actually decreased from 20% to 19% and that the Lava fire has grown to over 17,000 acres. Please send positive thoughts to all of those impacted.

As a result of the continued fire activity, the campus will remain closed and will re-open (hopefully) on Tuesday July 6th. Tuesday July 6th was also supposed to be our 'Welcome back to campus, re-opening (from COVID) day' but will now be postponed until Monday, July 12th. Due to the campus being closed, our meeting regarding changes in safety protocols will be postponed until next week. When many of us return on Tuesday, July 6th, please continue to follow our established safety protocols.

I want to thank everyone for your patience and resiliency as we are once again challenged by external forces. Stay diligent, informed and safe.

Everyone, please take care.
