Hello Siskiyous!

I hope everyone had a good weekend!

This week's updates:

- Enrollment Report: Will be accessible here.
- Facilities and Maintenance Updates: Vaporizer start up to occur. Ronnie will be at Saddleback College Wed- Friday for Module 4 of the Facility Leadership training. If you need vans or assistance, Maria will be in the office at 3PM daily.
- Transition Class Coffee Cart Project: The intent is to start the Coffee Cart Project shortly after spring break. Thank you to those who completed the survey!
- TOAST Mobile Ordering App: TOAST Mobile ordering app will go live today, Monday, March 25th. You can order and pay for food to be picked up at a specified time, reducing wait times and standing in line. To sign up for the app, scan the QR code on the attached flyer. Beverages (besides fountain drinks) will not be available for purchase through the app but will continue to be available for purchase separately at the counter. If you have any questions, please reach out to Christina at cvanalfen@siskiyous.edu.
- Individual Mental Health Appointments Available to Staff: If you're facing challenges that are adversely affecting your life, we strongly recommend utilizing this resource. Courtney Chase is offering 1 on 1 sessions with employees. Sessions are confidential and the cost will be covered by the District. To schedule an appointment visit: <https://calendly.com/courtneyslifecoaching/onehoursession>.

SJEDI Corner

- Tribal Data Collection and Governance: Principles of Practice and Partnerships:
Wednesday March 27th 1p - 2:30p. Data is foundational to Indigenous sovereignty and governance, but Indigenous peoples have historically experienced data inequities and invisibility. In this two-part webinar series, engage with experts about Indigenous data collection practices, collaborate with fellow participants in breakout sessions, and access informational resources that can help you advance educational data equity for American Indian and Alaska Native students. Click here to register. Save the date for Session 2 on Wednesday, May 22 at 1–2:30 p.m. Pacific.
